The Activation
Sequence

Introduction

"The Activation Sequence is the primary genetic sequence in your Holographic Profile. The Activation Sequence describes a series of three leaps in awareness that unfold in your life as you activate the higher purpose within your DNA. These inner realizations are called your Challenge, your Breakthrough and your Core Stability. Calculated from the position of the sun at the time of your birth, your Activation Sequence pinpoints four specific Gene Keys (known as your Four Prime Gifts) that form the vibratory field of your genius. As its name suggests, your Activation Sequence is a trigger that can catalyze a period of intense transformation in your life ."

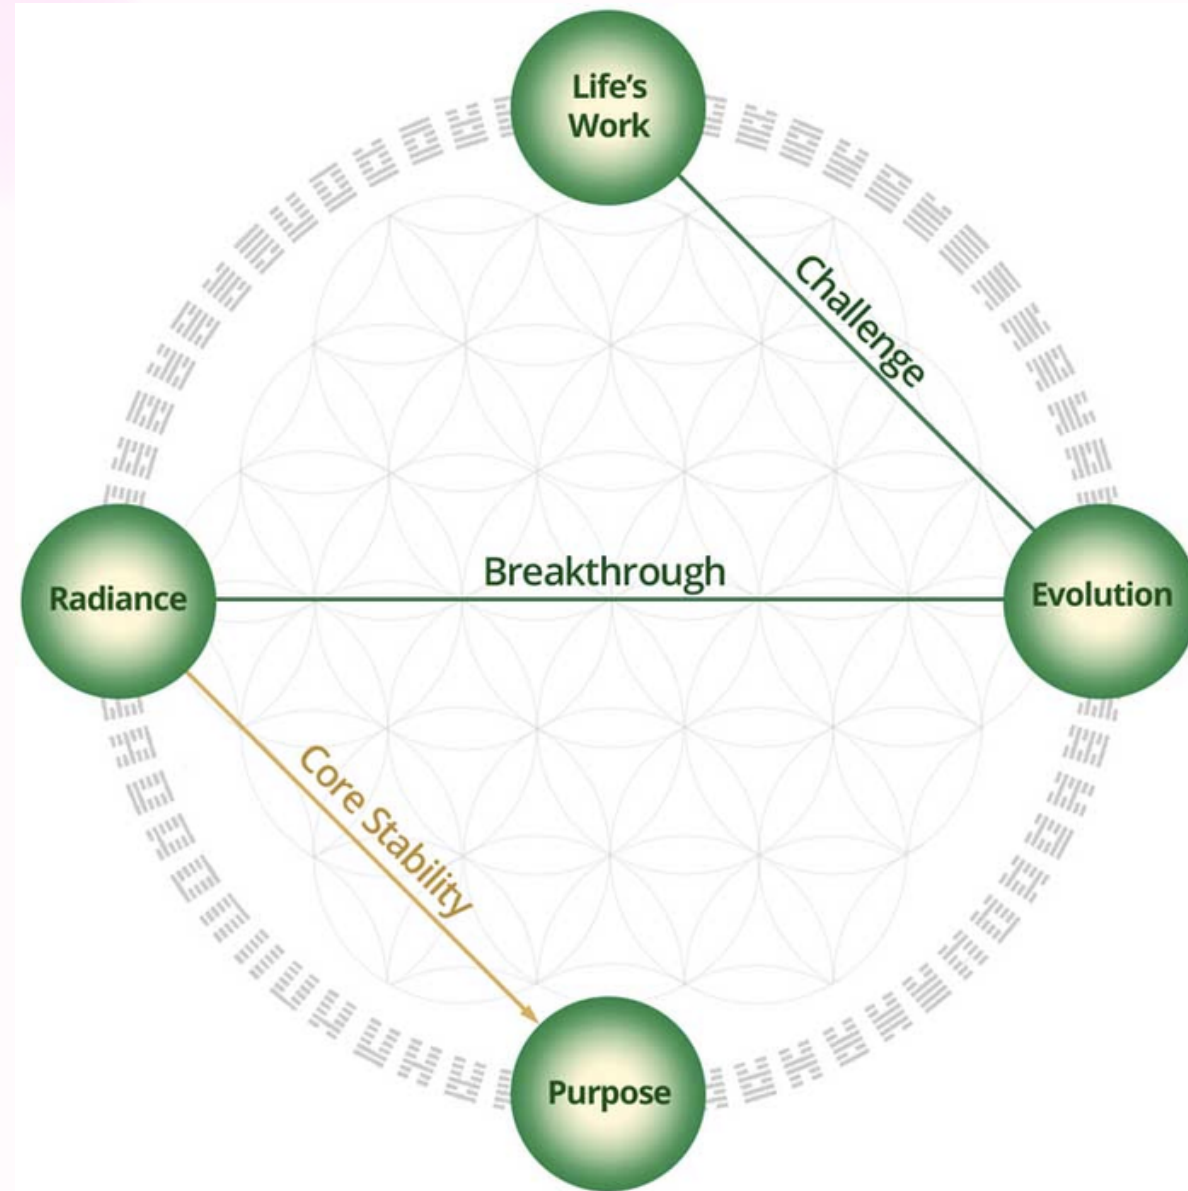

- Richard Rudd

Programming Partners

"Two Gene Keys that are holographically bonded together through opposition - in other words, they are exact mirror opposites. There are 32 such programming partners within the genetic matrix, and each creates a biofeedback loop that reinforces the themes of those Gene Keys at every level of frequency. At the Shadow frequency, the programming partners create physical, emotional and mental patterns and complexes that mutually reinforce each other. As awareness penetrates these patterns and transforms them, they release waves of creative energy at the Gift frequency, which in turn are mutually reinforced, leading to a continual raising of one's evolutionary frequency. At the Siddhic frequency, the programming partners no longer oppose each other but dawn as pure consciousness, creating a harmonic so pure that it deletes their difference."

The Sphere of your
Life's Work

Life's Work

"You can begin by contemplating the Gene Key that represents your Life's Work. Your Life's Work is the tip of the iceberg of your entire profile. It is where your deeper purpose meets the outside world. There are many forms of work. Your outer work is one thing - what you are here to do in life - that is your career, job, or daily role. This Gene Key is a good indicator of what you may be best suited to in the world. However, the Gene Keys are not literal. Rather they give you a frame of a storyline, and it is you who must fit this into an external role in your life. When you look at the Shadow of this Gene Key, you will see the pattern in your nature that prevents you from finding the kind of role that perfectly suits you."

- Richard Rudd

Life's Work

Shadow

"The other kind of work is inner work. The Shadow of your Life's Work really shows you a challenge that you will meet over and over again in your life until you have fully accepted it. This is your inner Life's Work. There are essentially three phases that accompany the transformation of our Shadows. They are: Allow, Accept and Embrace."

Gift

"Every Shadow contains a Gift. And this process of transformation takes time. You don't just transform this challenge and then move on to the next part of your Profile. This Challenge is there all the way along the journey. It is your primary challenge. Every time you recognize a negative pattern and embrace it, you unlock another Gift. Ultimately each Gift is interrelated, just as each Shadow is interrelated. Your ongoing contemplation will reveal this to you. As the Gift comes out, so your Life's Work becomes clearer. Your inner work affects your outer work. This is a universal law."

Siddhi

"The Siddhi represents the Divine essence of your work in the world. As you contemplate the Shadow of your Life's Work, it is a good idea to counterbalance it by holding the Siddhi in mind and heart. You need to really consider this Siddhi and locate it as an essence inside yourself. It is what you are here to do. It is the essence of your biography. You need to hold this Siddhi in your heart throughout the journey, and by the end, if you are fortunate, it may have revealed itself to you in some form."

The Sphere of your Evolution

Evolution

"Your Evolution, as we have seen, is in opposition to your Life's Work. Together, these two spheres and their Gene Keys encapsulate the primary challenge of your life. Look deeply then into the Gene Key of your Evolution. It will likely represent an uncomfortable place for you."

** "It took time to realize that the Gene Keys and the Golden Path are tools for Self Illumination. They come alive as you contemplate them. Rather than receive the wisdom second-hand, you now have all the tools you need to unlock it for yourself, inside yourself. A single insight that arises naturally from inside your own psyche is of greater benefit to you than all the wisdom given to you by another person."**

Shadow

"It is essential that you fully understand the Shadow frequency of the Gene Key relating to your Evolution. Until you come to see it playing out in your life and begin the process of coming to terms with it, your Activation Sequence will remain dormant. There are several trigger points along the Golden Path and your Evolution is your first. If you don't understand the meaning of this Shadow or it doesn't seem to connect with you, then you may need to consider it again from another angle. It is also one thing to intellectually grasp a pattern, but quite another to catch it in the present moment. Often these patterns emerge in the mirror of our relationships, and often they have become part of our behavior."

Gift

"Your Evolution is not about getting past this challenge because it is the discomfort that shows us that we are growing. The secret is to learn to appreciate your specific challenges in life. Your Gifts, that is your genius, grow out of the compost of these Shadow patterns and it is your awareness that transforms them. Take a good look at the Gift of your Evolution and you may see a quality that sets you apart from others. The Gift is what emerges as you change your whole attitude to life by not allowing yourself to behave as though you are a victim. In addition to this, your Evolutionary Gift grounds you in your physical body. It is a great leveler as it makes you feel an equal with every other human being. We all come into the world with a challenge, and our willingness to embrace that challenge determines the strength of our spirit."

Siddhi

"When you come to the Siddhi, this quality denotes the potential expression of your life as a fully realized, enlightened human being. The Siddhi of your Evolution is an essence inside you. It fuels the essence of what you are here to do in life. It is a special dispensation you were gifted with at birth, and at times in your life it will come to the fore. The deeper you accept the Shadow patterns, the humbler you will feel on the inside because the Siddhis arise out of intense feelings of gratitude."

The Pathway of Challenge

The Pathway of Challenge

"In the Gene Keys, the central premise is that every Shadow contains a Gift, so we must begin by looking into the nature of the Shadows within us in order to get to the hidden Gift inside. This is your Challenge. It is the challenge that rings out inside every human being. Our lives are made or broken upon the back of this primal, archetypal challenge. In looking at your Challenge, you must look deeply into the dynamic between the 2 Gene Keys that straddle this pathway. Your Life's Work is dictated symbolically by the sun, the yang force of energy, and your Evolution is dictated symbolically by the earth, the yin force of matter. Whereas your Life's Work is the expression of what you do, your Evolution is the turbine that drives what you do. The earthbound sphere of your Evolution tugging against that solar fire of your Life's Work is what sets up the basic tension that writes the script of your life. The moment your awareness of the Shadow pattern unlocks these codes, an awakening event occurs as the stored tension of these oppositions is released inside you. This is why the very first pathway of the Golden Path is called the Pathway of Challenge - you have to dive right into the heart of that tension and release it at its core."

- Richard Rudd

The Six Lines of Your Life's
Work and Evolution

Lines of your Life's Work

Line 1

The Creator

"The first line of each Gene Key really expresses the inner essence of the archetype that it contains. We humans are here to be creative. Our Life's Work is essentially a creative work in progress. If you have a 1st line as your Life's Work then you are here to create something new. It has to be your idea - it has to be something that emerges from deep inside you. You can ride on the shoulders of other creators who have come before you, but still, your version must be an original. Whatever you do, it must have this vital creative element within it, otherwise you will never be able to feel fulfilled in your life."

Line 2

The Dancer

"Every 2nd line carries a strong feeling of fluidity in it. Whereas the 1st line is about digging down deep to unearth the creative fruits, the 2nd line is all about self-expression. At its best the 2nd line is also unselfconscious, like a dancer who becomes lost in the joy of the dance. If you have a 2nd line as your Life's Work, then you will have to find out the gifts in life that come to you naturally and easily. You need to do things you are best at - the things you love - the things you can do without even thinking. The archetype of the dancer refers to an inherent natural gift that emanates from you. When you trust in this gift, it just flows out of you with a beautiful, natural unstudied air. Think about the thing you do with the most grace and ease. This will give you a clue as to where your true Life's Work lies."

Line 3

The Changer

"Unlike the 2nd line that follows a clear inner flow out into the world, the 3rd line is far less predictable. All 3rd lines have change at their heart. They do not often manifest the kind of stability that the other lines have. This means that the lives of those with a 3rd lines are often very colorful, or when viewed from the Shadow, chaotic. If you have a 3rd line for your Life's Work, your great challenge is to learn to let go of what your mind thinks is 'normal'. Your archetype is the Changer, which means that you will learn your Gifts from life. You may have many different experiences in different roles, with different people coming in and out of your life, and if you can let go and enjoy this kind of exciting narrative, then you will lead a very rich life. If however, you compare your life to others who may seem more stable, you may end up harboring all manner of self-judgments that will undermine your true Gifts."

Line 4 The Server

"The 4th line has the capacity to be the most focussed. If you have the 4th line as your Life's Work, it colors the corresponding Gene Key with an incredible capacity for conviction. You have an innate ability to influence other people. Depending on your attitude, this can either push people away or draw them towards you. The realm of the 4th line is people, so it is important that you learn to listen to others. Whatever your Life's Work Gene Key, its healthiest expression is through service. The Server is an archetype that clearly involves the giving of your Gifts for the sake of others. In other words, you are really in it because you love to see someone else smile."

Line 5 The Fixer

"The 5th line is pure practicality. It looks at the thing and decides whether it is going to really help the world or not. If it isn't then the 5th line just looks away, but if there is a chance that this thing may really be of use, then the 5th line will claim ownership of it and make something really powerful of it. If you have the 5th line for your Life's Work, then you have the capacity to go far in the outer world. The archetype of the fixer is about creating greater efficiency in the world. When you contemplate the Gene Key of your Life's Work, think about how you could make a business out of this archetype. Think about how you could use that as a leader. Your Gifts, when well organized, are needed by many people. Of all the 6 lines, you have perhaps the greatest capacity to be outwardly successful in the world through your Gifts."

Line 6 The Teacher

"The 6th line stands apart from the other lines. In a sense it lives according to different laws. The question that beats at the heart of all 6th lines is why? The 6th line has a certain relationship to the 1st line, as it brings completion to the whole spectrum of wisdom contained within each Gene Key. In other words, the 6th line has the capacity to be the wisest of all the lines, the one that simply sees further than the others. This is the archetype of the Teacher, and as we have seen, this doesn't necessarily mean that if you have a 6th line for your Life's Work then you are destined to be a teacher. It means that you share the essential attribute of any really good teacher - you understand that people are all born with different gifts, and if you provide the right environment, then those gifts will always emerge on their own. You need patience, and to understand each of the other 5 lines before you can answer the question why? The depth of this question may take a long time to fully emerge in life. You have to be able to look back on your life and then you will begin to see through the eyes of wisdom. Contemplation is therefore a very natural path for you in life. It takes time, but in time, it always yields an answer."

Lines of your Evolution

Line 1

Self and Empowerment

"In the sphere of one's Evolution, this becomes all about the empowerment of the Self. If you have a 1st line Evolution then your primary challenge is always likely to be about how self-assured or inadequate you feel. As a creative type you may sometimes feel you are your own worst enemy. Yours is a private path. That doesn't mean you cannot seek outside help and support, but it does suggest that the answers need to come from inside you. The arc of your evolution depends upon you digging deeply into your own aloneness and finding sustenance in there. No one else can empower you or dis-empower you. You can only do these things for yourself. When you meet this challenge courageously, then your Gifts will always empower others to find the same inner strength inside them."

Line 2

Passion and Relationships

"If the 1st line were a seed, then the 2nd line would represent the sapling. The 2nd line therefore has a very different set of challenges. This is about the uninhibited expression of energy as passion, and passion always catches the eye of others. When you contemplate the Gene Key of your Evolution, imagine how you might express these qualities with passion. Imagine the Shadow expressed through anger, without realization of the consequences. This may well tell the story of some of your relationship difficulties in life. The 2nd line always learns most intensely through a relationship. The dilemma and the beauty of the 2nd line as a life theme is that its nature is to be unselfconscious. If you have a 2nd line theme, your challenge is to listen to and observe the feedback from those closest to you. They always provide a very clear mirror of the frequency moving through you. Eventually, you will become so attuned to your environment that you will stop yourself before a negative pattern is expressed. Then your true passion will emerge innocently and be met with acceptance and gratitude."

Line 3

Energy and Experience

"The 3rd line is all about change. When you are contemplating a 3rd line Evolution, you need to look at this Gene Key as a journey. How will you spend this genetic inheritance you have been gifted? For you life is all about the experience rather than the result. Whether an endeavor appears to succeed or fail, its all about the journey and the experience that you have learned through it. When you finally let go of the ideas that you are going to get something from all those experiences, then you begin to realize that you have actually learned a great deal along the way. Then you can use your experiences (good and bad) to enrich others, and this becomes your Gift. When you apply the lines to the Gene Keys in this way, the story of your life often comes into new perspective."

Lines of your Evolution

Line 4

Love and Community

"With a 4th Line Evolution, your life's great challenge is likely to be about finding a balance between being alone and being with others. How will you combine your need to be of service with your need to have space? At the Shadow frequencies the 4th line has a tendency to simply go to one extreme or the other and then either collapse from exhaustion or end up being cut off from others. With the 4th line the theme is always love - the love of being with friends and the love of one's own company. As a 4th line, you might like to view the Gene Key of your Evolution as a quality designed to be shared with others. The more you share your Gift, the more you feed yourself and the more influential you become. The gift of the 4th line is to touch people's hearts and bring them over to one's point of view, so long as it is the most ethical point of view. Your 4th line perspective is adept at communication, which makes you a powerful force in any community or business."

Line 5

Power and Projection

"The 5th line Evolution is all about the projection and use of power. As a 5th line you have a built in 'X factor' - a kind of mystique that emerges through your aura. This is not something that you can do anything about because it is uncultivated. Therefore you have to be very aware of the profound effect you have on others. People will naturally be drawn to you, no matter what you stand for. At the Shadow frequencies this almost always ends in disappointment, both for you and others. Unless you are aware of your power you are likely to be misinterpreted by others, so one of the most important things for you is to learn how and when to express yourself. When you are passionate about something you can be captivating to others and they may harbor all kinds of hidden projections about you that have no foundation in reality. What this means is that a 5th line has to learn about personal and professional boundaries. When you express yourself with economy and clarity you minimize the risk of misunderstanding. When considering the Gene Key of your Evolution think about how easily others could misunderstand this great gift. Then you will be able to take full advantage of your 5th line projection field."

Line 6

Education and Surrender

"The 6th line lives out a very rich narrative over the course of its life. Unlike any of the other lines it moves through the whole story of the lines in a single lifetime! For the 6th line there is so much to learn before one's dreams can come true. In addition, by the time you have matured enough in wisdom, your understand of your own dreams will have changed. This is why surrender is one of the keynotes of the 6th line Evolution. You will need to learn to trust in the fates. When you apply the 6th line theme to the Gene Key of your Evolution, it may help to look at it as a maturing quality. The 6th line is all about the long-term view. This is why education is such an important part of your life. Through your own experience you will learn that life knows best in the end, and it is this trust in life that you can eventually bring into the world as a role model. Education does not impose views- rather it draws out that which is already inside. This is something deeper than success or influence in the world. It has more to do with investment in a greater future for us all. In this sense the 6th line is willing to sacrifice personal goals for a wider, collective goal."
