A Guide to DIVINE
PARENTING TRAITS

LEARNING TO PARENT IN A HIGHER WAY

Very similar to the Divine Traits, here the traits are adjusted to relating to, guiding, raising children and parenting in a higher way.

We unlearn all the programs of how parenting was steeped in dysfunction to guide children to higher levels of consciousness.

NURTURING

Nurturing is truly something every Being on Planet Earth has been starved of. It is not only based on physical affection, but also a present parent who is in the Heart.

When you are breathing in through the nose and out through the mouth consciously, everything slows down, when we are centred in the heart, we receive divine inspiration, and we can feel into the needs of others and of our children. You will feel your body picking up anxiety or off energy and will be guided into dance, garden or to be creative with your children, you will know when transformation is required.

As a new Mom, you will know before your baby wakes up that they are about to need you.

TOLERANCE

Accepting all of our Self with Accountability and Responsibility teaches Divine Tolerance in honoring all paths. Divine Tolerance thrives in discomfort, enduring tests of strength.

Tolerance sets firm boundaries and calls a spade a spade with respect, tact and Honor. This is a particularly important Trait to embody with Children, understand that as an adult that has gone through the full extent of EGO programming, your innocence was taken and so the innocence of children can trigger that wound. Many times, it is the parent acting in wrong action and not allowing the innocence of the child to be fully lived. Be tolerant in times you feel triggered, ALL triggers reveal a wound.

Go within and be tolerant with 'irritating,' circumstances. Allow your child to BE.

COMPASSION

Compassion is True Heart care for where another BEing is at. Compassion is an essential component of Divinity. What we notice in others exists within ourselves, for we are all mirrors. Only Love communicates directly Heart to Heart.

An essential component of having Compassion, is to forgive and let go of what we hold judgment over.

Compassionate Parenting also allows boundaries to be set, understanding that compassion means we love another enough to safeguard them from the EGO and when communicating feelings with others always discern if, in the moment it is highest for you to show Compassion or Passion.

RESPONSIVE

Ego reacts. Love Responds. Love feels for the Truth and acts with Trust and in pure intent with clear focus. Stay centered, breathe deeply, perhaps wait the night—commanding Atoms to rest consciously.

Determine the highest course of action and go forth calmly. Respond fully from the Heart. Be aware of reacting to your child, whether it's a cry or negative behavior you are here to be a Love based responder.

BE ORGANIC

Stop 'trying.' As we surrender to the flow of Nature and of Love, we become Organic. Let go of programmed responses, conditioned control dramas, stop playing to the status Quo, be more.

We are here to depart from All we beLIEved to be true. This is paramount for parenting. All prior systems have been steeped in dysfunction.

Allow your True Organic state to lead and guide, moving with the synchronistic dance of life in perfect tandem with all that is, it is not an effort, it's an allowance to feel free.

TENACITY

What is our passion, purpose and driving force in life?

With Divine Creator we gain the Tenacity and zest for life that allows us to push beyond the illusion of “limits.”

Tenacity is walking into the unknown with Courage, and the knowing that when God is for us, none are against us. Show your children the Super hero you are, going above and beyond, growing and expanding each and every day, pushing to greater and grander heights.

DIVINE INTELLIGENCE

Intelligence requires full use of the brain, not the mind. The mind is an illusion, a program.

Divine Intelligence comes from our Heart Centered, internal knowing of whole and pure Heart Truth. Tap into the Divine Power of Now to bring forth our gifts of Divine Intelligence and guidance of our children.

INNER STRENGTH

Inner Strength is the ability to overcome codependency. Over emotional outbursts often stem from a lack of inner strength, the ability to take the most intense triggers and process them internally is a sign of inner strength. The ability to remain solid in the storm, through surrender and trust in our journey.

There is a continuous sense of peace when we can fully surrender to Divine Will in every moment. This will build our Inner Strength.

Surrender Free Will and embrace Divine Will in its place. This is a key quality for children to learn, how to harness their own inner strength to guide themselves through uncomfortable experiences in their lives.

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

Unconditional Love is Loving free of conditions. To Love Unconditionally is to grant others, and our Self, the gift of purely BEing in every moment.

We must ask our Self this question: Is the Love I express conditional or Unconditional towards not only others, but ourselves? Be aware of your energy towards children, 'Why are you doing that?' Questions based in Interrogation, implies that what they are doing is wrong, are you sure that what they are doing is wrong? Are you in control? Do you Love them conditional to them not doing that? Will you subject them to shame, blame, disappointment, anger? These are all are forms of conditional love.

Break the perfection and pattern! Have a food fight with your children and just laugh and play!

LOVE PERCEPTION

How do we look at the world? What perspective do we adopt when events occur? Do we Respond with Love or do we react in Fear? (EGO).

Perception, True Reality perspective, is to see all in the highest light, through the lens of Love.

Everything is happening for a reason. See the Blessing in All experiences and teach your children to BE in an experience of Love.

HONOR

Honor is Being impeccable with your word.

There will be MOMents when you fail to honor what you have intended, you must take full accountability for this, and dissolve any desire to blame.

JUSTIFICATION is the EGO. Take Full accountability, feel it and FORGIVE. Guilt built up will cause you great illness. Go deep within to release All Guilt so you can move on fully free of necessary weight.

To Honor ourselves, we must be free of all shame. Honoring means doing what we know and feel in our Heart to be highest and best. Feel into any areas in which we struggle to embody Honor.

Seek to improve and expand.

INTEGRITY

Integrity could be said to be doing the right thing when no one is watching, in truth All of Creation are always watching.

Hold yourself to the greatest, grandest levels of integrity possible. We are asked to feel into our motivating energy. Is our motivation pure Love? Is there an agenda?

BE in Heart alignment and follow through on intentions that have been set. We walk our talk. We show up in Integrity.

UNITY CONSCIOUSNESS

Our Heart-Brain connection brings forth Unity Consciousness and is a transmitter of giving and receiving.

Our Heart can send messages throughout the entirety of Creation, and all is known, seen and heard. We are one with Creation, experiencing Love everywhere Present, which is the present/gift.

Open Your Heart to know all is connected, when we are loving and kind to others we are loving and kind to ourselves and vice versa.

We are all one and this awareness is a great gift to share with our children.

SELF LOVE

Become aware of your internal dialogue. Do not put yourself down, you may be doing so even when you do not realize it, every lower thought emits a frequency, the children feel all of them and will mirror back what we are putting out.

In this way they are Our greatest teachers.

Accept all of the Self Love that is ceaselessly being poured through our Hearts. Redirect all of the Love we have given to others, back inward to our Self from our Self.

Reheart that we cannot give away to others what we ourselves lack. Often, it is us that requires True Love the most.

WILLPOWER

We are All here to Surrender Free Will for Divine Will. Divine Will requires we give it everything we've got to embody Divinity, Love and Push the energies for the New Earth.

This Planet was lost so deep down the Rabbit hole, the climb up is a consistent application of Divine Will. Internally and externally.

When we connect fully to source and our angels, we are given the Power to embody Divine Will and discipline. We ask the universe to guide us as it Responds with open arms. Willpower is the Inner Strength that comes from our diamond core.

WORTHINESS

To fully Receive Love, we must accept Love from our Self. It is in the Present moment of Now, where both the energies of Love and the Unknown, are our Organic state. In this space, we lack nothing and never punish our sacred Self. Creation is born here in every Now moment.

Unworthiness is a deep wound within Humanity, a heavy hitter that can cause a lot of heart ache. You are worthy of All Love is, you are worthy to have been chosen as one of God's strongest warriors on the Ground and to guide your children in the highest way.

The thoughts based in lower are illusionary so don't let the chatter of the EGO win, blast that out with some rainbow light and push yourself into Heart felt Love based service!

HUMILITY

Humility is a state of BEing as opposed to embodying arrogance or pride. Pride will cause many pitfalls in your experience if you are attached to it and unwilling to grow beyond.

Humbleness requires a presence in every moment, to look at each situation with a completely unattached point of view—without judgment. Keep your head held high, but not too high. Be Humble, be an example for others.

Children must be given the space to BE creative, they will Create all sorts of Magic if allowed and who are we to say if what they are sharing is 'true,' or not? Children see and feel far beyond the five senses, WE are the ones that are limited so allow the children to guide you, humbly, through their experience.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Take Full Accountability for all experiences, “good or bad.” This is a process that requires reflection and feeling. Always receive awareness of being out of right action, surrender, even if you have a counter point save it for another moment to allow full integration of what has been shared with you.

Our Soul asked to be fully realized, therefore it asked also for each of these blessings/lessons, truly for every experience you have.

Accepting full responsibility allows vulnerability and the embodiment of True Reality perspective, which is Gratitude.

It is here, where the growth/gift lives.

GRATITUDE

Entitlement is one of the biggest issues Children face. When you are interacting with you child and then you put your attention towards something else and they cry, they feel ENTITLED to more of your energy. The same applies to food and toys, stemming from 'needs, wants and desires,' All EGO. The opposite of entitlement is Gratitude.

The child in entitlement is not grateful for All they already have, so they seek externally for more. Our Higher Self has asked for every experience it has had—be it enjoyable or be it more challenging. The experience was exactly what was requested, so be Grateful for it all.

Gratitude and Joy are the highest vibrations. Be the example of Gratitude by being grateful for falling over, getting splashed by a passing car ~ Nothing should warrant a negative reaction, or your child will mirror back to you a negative EGO reaction.

PROACTIVITY

Possibility is the cage we live in. Allow Source, who is always one step ahead, to light the way and clear the obstacles. As a Proactive being, we have the foresight to always remain on the highest timeline. Step forward, align yourself with Source, and you will receive Divinely guided action steps, and evolution is assured.

The Angels and Creation ONLY exist in the Present moment, past and future are fantasy constructs. If you are receiving guidance or getting nudged to do something, do it then, or NOW. As soon, as a dialogue of 'I'll do it later...' comes in you are in EGO!

This can be practiced with Children, embrace their ideas, embrace play and seize the moment!

AUTHENTICITY

Authenticity is the Expression of the real BEing.

We often present a picture of our Self to be accepted and validated. Unmask. We are here to be in full embodiment of our Higher Selves. We allow others to see the Love at the core of our sacred Self.

Teach your Children that they are not here to be part of the crowd, they are here to be Fully who they are. To be a brave expression of LOVE.

HEART CENTREDNESS

Our Heart Powers all that we are, producing its own electromagnetic frequency. One Heart has the ability to affect the entirety of Creation.

When we are Heart Centered, we are in alignment with all that we are, and we can manifest pure Magic and endless synchronistic events. Perceive, observe and Respond with Love in all moments using Heart telepathy.

This is a Major tool for Parents. Do not freak out or react when your child cries, do not automatically spring into robotic movement 'just because,' this is fight or flight. Stop, Breathe, ensure you are calm and centered and a lot of the time this alone will calm the child down, feel in with your Heart what the child requires, food, diaper, connection, grounding, dancing, change of environment. Practice this in a Heart centered Space and see what messages and pings your own Heart sends back to you. Let the frequency of Love guide you.

CHILD-LIKE WONDER

Child Like Wonder requires everything to be let go of. Release all attachments and be pulled by the magnetism of our Heart in Wonderment.

Sing, dance, play, laugh. This incredibly freeing state opens our vessel, allowing the highly potent healing energy all around us, to enter.

Humanity had their Child Like Wonder stolen from them, as Mother Earth Herself did, reclaim this back, see this experience as the miracle it is.

Spend moments gazing upon the flower and draw in the scent of Mother Earth's Creation to rekindle that wonder. Observe your children, they are great teachers of this!

LAUGHTER

The Higher Self Laughs often. The Higher self can see the Macro Picture and is connected to the Glory of All that Source is Creating. The synchronicities, The Magic is ever present, and Laughter cannot be helped! Pause for a moment and take another look or a different perspective at things.

Understand there is always a flip side the universe is showing us, if we choose to see it.

Focus on the lighter side of life and just laugh things off. Laughter is food for the Soul while we play the game of life.

JOY

Joy is the souls Truest Expression. Check in with yourself, connect to your Heart center and emanate Joy there. Generate it yourself from within your own Being. Be a vessel that spreads Joy for the greater good of all. Seek that which brings our soul Joy – for our Joy is God’s Joy. And there is nothing better than hearing a child laughing.

Laughter is a Powerful healing tool, so giggle away! Be fully Receptive of all Joy received and give thanks to Love for bringing such Joy into your life.

GRACE

Grace is a Divine Trait that will allow us to embody such a High Vibration that we Present All Our Inner Stability Outward. Being the example of Love, Balance, Harmony = Grace.

Let go and let Source move Gracefully through our BEing. Grace is the Breath that allows, far from reacting to and from needs, wants and desires. Choosing instead to recreate into a better sense of flow and embodiment.

We allow Grace to enter our lives, commanding all actions into right action and losing our Self in the Now.

TRUTH

Truth is Pure, and whole Truth heals. All have been conditioned to live within an agreed upon lie, many are conditioned to attach to mistruth and Half Truths. All must be discarded and The Truth of The Heart must be accessed.

Truth may arrive via fire, ice or whatever form is best for the circumstance – there are no rules.

Abandon concepts of right, wrong, good or bad. The Divine does what is highest and that can look like anything. No duality, no judgement.

Allow sacred Truths to come forth.

Whole Truth heals. And our children should be taught that Truth heals and sets us free.

POWERFULNESS

Divine Power is attained WITH alignment with Source. The 3D is wrought with power over and powerlessness dynamics.

One holding power over another is the dysfunctional illusion and Parents must embrace every opportunity to empower their children. Praising right action and giving no energy to wrong action.

In alignment with Divine Will, we activate our seat of Power, the place of potency. As our Heart expands, the Power of Love pours through us, bringing magical expansion. With Source, we have the Power to overcome obstacles/tests in our path.

PERSEVERANCE

Life is sure to throw you some curve balls!
Sometimes, Life may be a bit tense. In those moments, our angels suggest that we buckle down, stay grounded, centered and aware.

Push through it – Breathe and maintain. These moments, although uncomfortable, are the grandest for expansion and spiritual growth.

This is how the diamond is forged through fire and the example we set for our Children.

CONSISTENCY

The EGO (edging God out) cannot be Consistent. Consistency is the cornerstone of the Divine. The Heart brings presence and focus, which is Consistency, allowing a clear path for successful completion of our Heart's efforts.

Banish all distractions; Spiritual discipline is key.

A consistent Being will always complete what they have begun and will see the energy through to its fullest expression, building upon what has been done to Create more and more Energy!

COURAGE

This is a big part of Divine Embodiment as Beings on Earth were made to be disempowered.

Courage is essential on a Planet that has been enslaved in weakness. When Passion and Willpower are combined, Courage is activated.

Stand up, speak up, be an instrument for God's Love. HAVE NO FEAR. We ask our angels to help us find the Courage to be the change we wish to see.

By being a divine example, we set that example for our Children to be Courageous too.

EMPATHY

Our journey is a collection of experiences through which Wisdom and understanding are gained.

With this knowledge we can Empathize with and feel where others are coming from.

Divine Empathy applies nonjudgment and Compassion to a situation.

DIVINE EXPRESSION

We allow our energy its Expression, letting the Divine channel through our BEing into song, dance, writing, gardening. All are forms of Expression that will unlock the throat chakra's full Power.

We do not allow our energy to Express dysfunction.

DIVINE FULL FEELING

Children must be allowed to Fully Feel their experience without control or FEAR. We clear, ground, breathe, surrender, connect to, and focus on our Heart. This is Full presence in the moment.

The mind does not understand Feeling.

Breathe in through the nose and out through the mouth. If it doesn't feel good, it's not Love.

Come back to the Heart of Love, for it is All that is real.

WISDOM

The knowledge that exists within our universe is multi-dimensionally rich and limitless. We are here for the Great remembering, your Heart knows the Truth and it is through experience that we gain Wisdom, so do not shy away from having experiences so your Heart can gain its wisdom through discerning how it feels.

In order to turn experience into Wisdom, reflection must occur, feeling must be embarked upon, and realization allowed. Experience without reflection becomes just an occurrence.

Automatic Writing is recommended for 30 minutes a day to bring the wisdom of the Higher self forth.

FAITH

Finding Answers in the Heart. ~ Love is the unbreakable and eternal force that holds the vastness of all Creation together and it is All accessible within your Heart through Faith .

Ask, what would Love do Now? Have Faith that Source has got our Heart, and our back.

Love makes no mistakes. Trust in God with Honor and respect.
